Listing of Claims:

Claims 1-3 (canceled)

Claim 4 (new): A drink holder for use with a fishing rod holder comprising of:

a rod portion consisting of hollow cylinder with an open end having 4 equally spaced slots that are wide enough to fit over the orientating pin of a standard rod holder, and a closed end having a round ratchet surface perpendicular to the axis of the hollow cylinder, with a hole in the center of the ratchet surface;

a cup portion consisting of a hollow cylinder being open at one end and closed at the other end, with a round ratchet surface perpendicular to the axis created by its hollow cylinder, attached to the closed end with a hole in the center of the ratchet surface;

a wing nut and bolt;

assembled with the ratchet surfaces being secured together at any desired angle by the wing nut and bolt.

Claim 5 (new): A drink holder as described in claim 4 having a rod portion with the cylinder having a maximum diameter of 1.5 inches.

Claim 6 (new): A drink holder as described in claim 4 having a cup portion with the cylinder having a maximum diameter of 4.5 inches.

Claim 7 (new): A drink holder as described in claim 5 having a rod portion of no less than 9 inches in length.

Claim 8 (new): A drink holder as described in claim 4 having a rod portion with a depression in the opposite side of the ratchet surface so that it would capture the bolt head, stopping it from turning during assembly.

Claim 9 (new): A drink holder as described in claim 4 having a cup portion with a smaller diameter shallow ring extending from the inside of the cylinders closed end, toward the open end, to assist in holding smaller diameter containers.

Claim 10 (new): A rod holder as described in claim 4 that has the ratchet surfaces designed so that the angle of the cup portion can be adjusted in increments of 10 degrees.
